Answering Difficult Questions

MINDFULNESS MEDITATION TEACHER CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Examples of Difficult Questions

Can you explain karma?

Can you explain rebirth?

I read in Buddhist teachings there is no self. So, what is reborn?

I really like you. Are you single?

You teach lovingkindness. What about people like Hitler?

Sitting in meditation makes me feel worse. What to do?

I get so angry at my children sometimes I could hit them.

Our political situation keeps making me really anxious.

I have read about some Buddhist teachers who misuse their students. Are there teachers you recommend we stay away from?

Is meditation different than prayer?

I just got a bad cancer diagnosis, and I am scared.

Mindfulness seems too weak and soft-hearted for this world.

Mindfulness is passive. With climate change, refugees everywhere, and racism, why don't we organize and do something to respond?

I read that the Buddha taught that sex is bad and an obstacle to enlightenment. What about masturbation?

What is enlightenment? Have you met any enlightened people? Are you enlightened?

My family is very strictly religious. They would be horrified to know I was coming to a meditation retreat based on Buddhist teachings.