The Tri-Lens of Conditioned Reality (Tilakkhaṇa)

Anicca [Impermanence]

Everything arising is subject to cessation. Reality is in perpetual flux and instability.

Dukkha [Unsatisfactoriness / Stress]

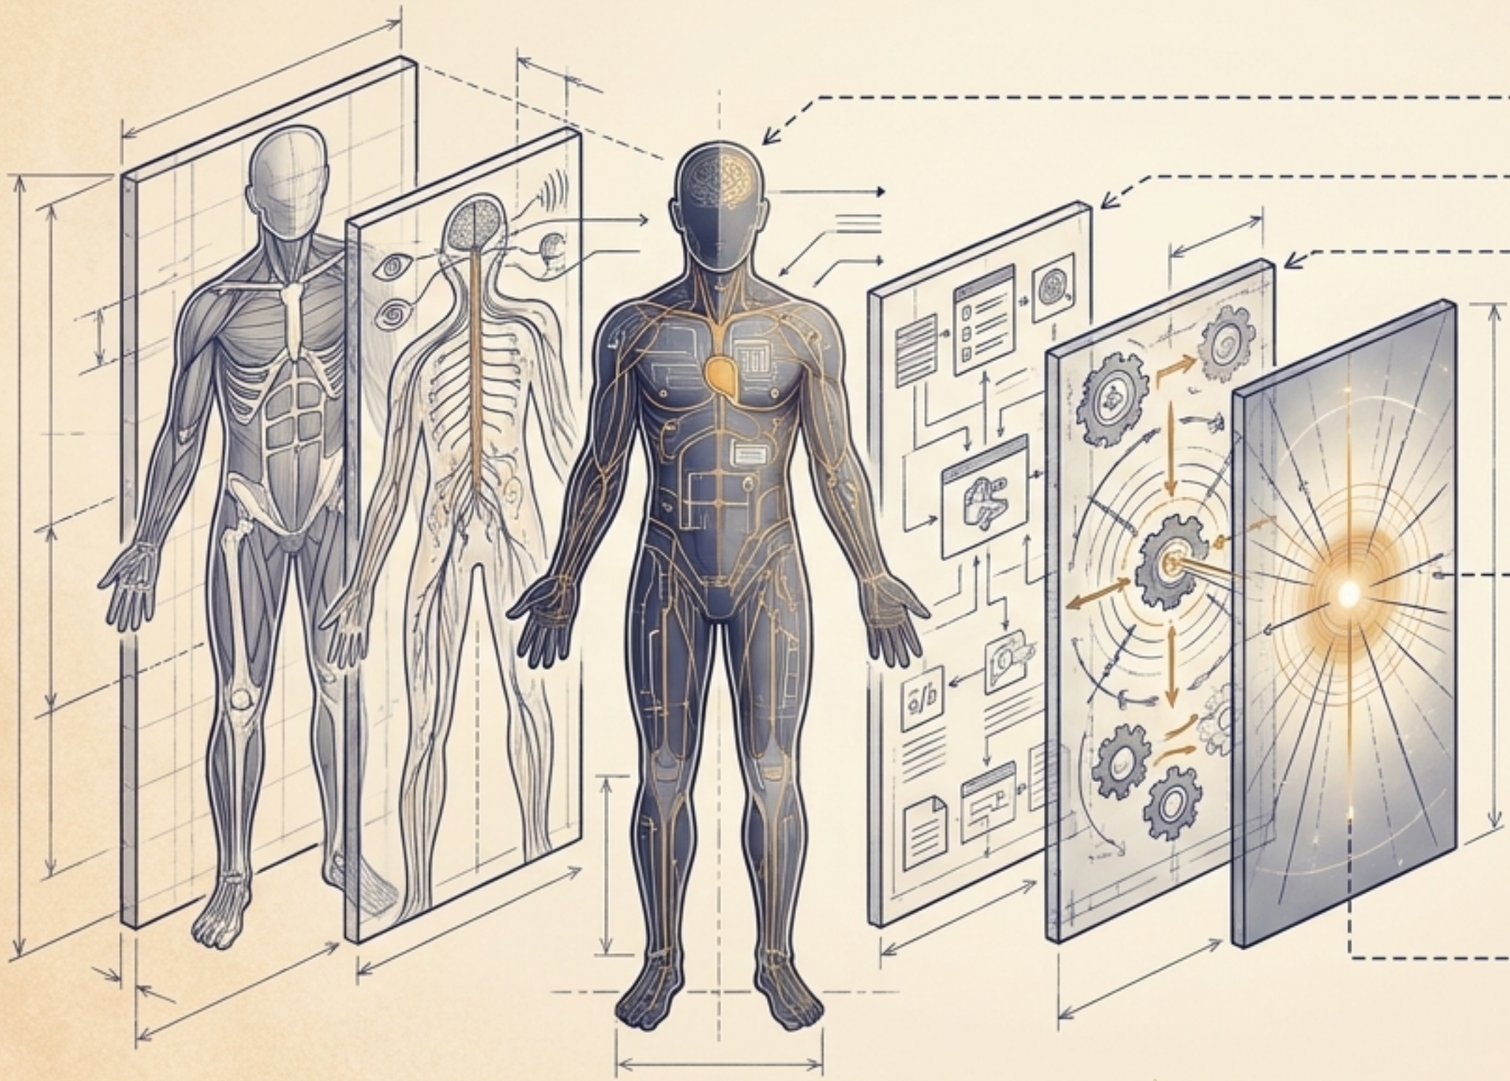

Fluctuating phenomena cannot provide permanent refuge. Grasping generates tension.

Anattā [Non-Self / Insubstantiality]

No phenomenon contains an unchanging, autonomous essence. Experiences arise dependently, without ownership.
