REFUGE RECOVERY

A Buddhist Path to Recovering from Addiction

DANA

In-person meeting format:

In Refuge Recovery we practice dana, the Buddhist principle of generosity and community support. We have a $5 suggested donation. If you have less, give less. If you have more, give more. Refuge Recovery is freely offered. We have no dues or fees. Each group is responsible for its own finances, relying solely on the generosity of its members. Your donations are used at the local level to pay for group rent and literature. Donations collected that exceed these local expenses are used to cover the shared costs each Refuge Recovery group incurs at the world level and are sent monthly to our non-profit, Refuge Recovery World Services. These costs include running the main website and social media, developing new literature, supporting the creation of new meetings and holding an annual conference. Thank you for supporting Refuge Recovery's mission to provide our path to all those seeking freedom from addiction.

Online meeting format:

At this time in Refuge Recovery online meetings, we take a few minutes to offer dana. https://refugerecovery.org/donate Dana is our practice of generosity and support. Refuge Recovery is freely offered. We have no dues or fees. Donations made to Refuge Recovery online are used to cover the shared costs each local group incurs at the world level. These costs include protecting the integrity of the Refuge Recovery name and program, running the main website and social media, developing new literature, supporting the creation of new meetings and holding an annual conference. We have a $5 suggested donation. Please use the link in the chat window to offer dana by credit card or PayPal. If you have less, give less. If you have more, give more. We appreciate your generosity.
