Chants for Labor Day Retreat

I Have Arrived (Words Thich Nhat Hahn, Music Betsy Rose)
I have arrived, I am home, in the here and in the now (2x)
I am solid, I am free (2x)
In the ultimate I dwell (2x)

Breath (Words Thich Nhat Hahn; Music Nina Wise)
In breath, out breath, deep breath, slow breath
Calm breath, ease breath, smile breath, release breath
Present moment, wonderful moment

Metta
Sabe sata sukhi hontu (Pali - May all beings be happy)

May We (Words adapted from Buddhist Lovingkindness phrases; Music Eve Decker)
May I (you, we) be safe and protected from inner and outer harm
May I (you, we) be truly happy and deeply peaceful
May I (you, we) be healthy and strong and physically at ease
May I (you, we) take care of myself (yourself, ourselves), and live with well being

Sending You Light (Melanie DeMore)
I am sending you light, to heal you, to hold you.
I am sending you light, to hold you in love

Brahma Vihara Chant (Words – Pali for Lovingkindness, Compassion, Appreciative Joy, Equanimity. Music Betsy Rose)
Metta, Karuna, Mudita, Upekkha (repeat)

Impermanence Chant
Anicca vata sankhara, Uppada vaya, dhammino
Uppajjitva nirijjhanti, Tesam vupasamo sukkho

All things are impermanent, they arise and they pass away
To be in harmony with this truth, brings great happiness

Dedication of Merit (Words translated from Mandarin by Rev. Heng Sure; music Loreena Mckennitt)

May every living being,
our minds as one and radiant with light
Share the fruits of peace, with hearts of goodness, luminous and bright. If people hear and see, how hands and hearts can find in giving, unity
May our minds awake,
to great compassion,
wisdom and to joy.

May kindness find reward,
may all who sorrow leave our grief and pain.
May this boundless light meet the darkness of our sacred night.
Because our hearts are one,
this world of pain turns into paradise
May all become compassionate and wise.
May all become compassionate and wise.
